Capability

Our client base comprises of leading Blue Chip organisations as well as small/medium companies across a broad range of industry sectors. Our staffing solutions support technologies across a wide range of platforms from client server networks to midrange and mainframe systems, through to cutting edge technologies.

Redrock Consulting seem to have my best interests at the centre of whatever they do for me. They maintain regular contact with me (phone, email) and make frequent on-site visits. Redrock Consulting don't seem to be interested in the profit margin, they make an effort to give a good service. Expressing interest in how a contract is progressing, any issues or requirements I have. I have good professional relationship with my contact at Redrock Consulting. He knows his market and business and seems to take genuine a genuine interest in his clients
